with the close of last week, but this was followed by an advance which by Wednesday amounted to an average of about 10c compared with the close of last week. The only thing contributing to the strength of the market was a reasonably good demand from outside sources. Local packers from the beginning of the week pursued the dilatory tactics that have characterized their buying in the past, and as a result the close of each day was lower than the opening. In the face of the unfavorable situation the receipts toward the close of the week were increased and there was a falling off in the demand from outside sources. UNION STOCKYARDS, INDIANAPOLIS, April 11 .- Cattle-Receipts, 100; shipments none. The receipts of cattle this week exhibit a decrease of about $00 compared with last week, orease of over 100 over the same week two years ago. The receipts thus far this year are over 5,300 smaller than the same time last year and the receipts for the month thus far are 650 smaller than the same period last year. The conditions in the market this week have been almost completely reversed compared with those prevailing for several weeks. It has been decidedly a seller's market and the results from their point of view have been entirely satisextent were due to the good judgment of shippers in preventing excessive receipts. The highest sales this week were $5.40 for fat steers, $4.90 for feeders, $5 for heifers, $4.75 for cows, $4 for buils and $7.25 for calves. The receipts to-day were small and as usual on Saturday all kinds were not represented. The quality generally was only fair to medium and therefore not atwas quiet and it took more or less time to consummate sales, but finally a clearance was made at prices about the same as those paid for equal kinds yesterday. WILD SESSION IN WHEAT

ARMOUR'S EFFORT TO UNLOAD CAUSES A THREE-CENT BREAK.

Removal of Selling Pressure Steadies the Market-Other Grains and Hog Products Hold Fairly Steady.

CHICAGO, April 11.-The wheat pit was the center of attraction on the Board of Trade to-day, and as a result of the manipulation which had been in progress the past week the May option declined 3c and July extreme close of this week and very little confidence is being placed in the near future market. The top price at the beginning of this week was $7.50, at the high time $7.60 and at the close 21/2c, but rallied later, May closing %@%c lower, with July down 11/2c. Corn closed a $7.35. The receipts to-day ordinarily would not be considered excessive, but on account of re-cent developments there were fully as many as shade higher, with oats unchanged, while provisions were from 21/20 lower to 121/20 There was wild excitement in the wheat cent developments there were fully as many as expected, and, in fact, a larger supply than a week ago or a year ago. The market opened with practically no demand from any source, and it was evident from the start that salesmen would have another difficult problem to solve. In the first hour practically nothing changed hands, but later a few loads were being sold. Packers who seemed to be leading the buying were requiring reductions of 10c to 15c in prices compared with yesterday's close, and while salesmen were very reluctant in accepting such figures there was no other outlet and most transactions indicated that much change. Shippers pit at the start, and every broker appeared to have buying orders, the general impression being that the Armour people were going to send the price still higher. The leader of the bulls was a fair buyer at the opening, and with a big demand from shorts the price of May advanced to 77%c were also buying a few loads now and then, but it was evident that the supply was ample to meet all of the requirements and the trading was very dull. Rather late in the day a few shipping orders for heavy hogs arrived and were executed at current prices, but they gave very little, if any, strength to the market. After buying 1,000 head Kingan & Co. withdrew from the market and a few loads remained unsold at the close. Sales ranged from $6.75 to $7.35, and the bulk of the supply sold at $7.07.20, against $7.15.67.35 yesterday. Quotations: after opening a shade lower, to 1/20%c higher, at 764@76%c, while July advanced to 72%c, after opening at 71%c to 72%c. This appeared to be exactly what the Armou interests were waiting for, and with a big demand for both the May and July deliveries the big bull turned seller, hoping to be able to dispose of most of his holdings at a good profit. The change in tactics however, was quickly noticed by the watch ful crowd, and the selling became general so much so that the price broke sharply May selling off to 74%c and July to 63%c The break in prices was the signal for let-up in the selling pressure on the par of the prominent long, and with this interest out of the deal the market became Sheep-Receipts, 100; shipments none. The receipts of sheep and lambs this week have been of fair volume, showing a decrease of only about quieter. A fair demand from commission houses and shorts soon brought about partial rally, and the market was quite of 500 over the week a year ago and 650 over the corresponding week two years ago. The receipts thus far this year indicate a decrease of over 2,300 compared with the same time last year, and the receipts for the month thus far are nearly 1,200 larger than the same period last year. Practically all week there has been a steady market for the very best sheep and yearling lambs. Occasionally, however, such kinds were more or less inclined to weakness—flour were equal to 768,000 bu. Primary receipts were 500,000 bu (two days), against 236,000 bu a year ago. Minneapolis and Dusuch conditions usually being sympathetic, with luth reported receipts of 393 cars, which, with local receipts of 49 cars-none of conthe week the receipts were not much in excess of the requirements of local butchers and the steady condition of affairs was principally due tract grade-made a total of 442 cars, against 259 last week and 186 a year ago. to that fact. There was hardly a day in the week that the best yearling lambs could not be sold at $7@7.25 and the best sheep usually sold There was little interest in corn, and the trading was dull and featureless. Commission houses sold July, but there was around $5. Toward the close of the week, in enough demand from scalpers and brokers to prevent a serious decline. The break in wheat had little effect, and the close was with other markets, there was a decided change in the market here for medium stock and especially the yearling lambs below top kinds. Bids in many cases were over $1 per 100 lbs lower, but salesmen finally succeeded in transferring the consignments at a decline of steady, with May a shade higher, at 42%c. Receipts were 188 cars, none of contract Butchers wanted practically all of the supply and they took them usually at steady prices compared with yesterday. Quo-tations: There was a fair demand for lard and ribs throughout the day, which tended to maintain a steady undertone in provisions, although pork was weak on selling by com-mission houses. The Financier says: "The official statement of the New York Associated Banks last week showed the most notable feature only the small gain of $627,600 in cash, whereas a somewhat larger increase was looked for as the result of the traceable movements of money during the week, and also because the subtreasury operations on Thursday and Friday caused the distribution of important amounts of cash to the banks. One item disbursed by the sub-treasury on Thursday was $479,000, representing a treasury warrant for the pay-

New Jersey to the government in the civil fore, have been made on rising averages for cash, and, consequently, the banks were in better condition at the end of the week than was shown by the statement. Loans were reduced during the week by $1,205,400, making $47,429,200 since the maximum was ing the net gain of cash $627,600, as above noted. The deposits decreased $3,931,500, a cent. in cash against deposits was de-creased $982,875, which sum, added to the the increase in cash reported by the Mercantile last week, less the cash reported by the Seventh National in the previous week.

The loans of the Mercantile last week showed an increase of $5,863,000; in the pre-vious week the Seventh National had $6,- "One feature of interest shown by the statement was the average daily clearings of the banks last week, which were $198,-000,000, against $265,000,000 in the previous week. This decrease was due to the clos-ing of the exchanges on Good Friday. The clearings for that day were only $103,000,000 against $255,000,000 for the corresponding day in the previous week, showing the vol-ume of the business of the banks, with

LOCAL WHOLESALE TRADE

BUSINESS IN GOOD VOLUME, BUT RE-TARDED BY COOL WEATHER.

Druggists and Iron and Steel Mer Are Very Busy-Produce Continues

Strong-Light Grain Markets.

The produce men on Saturday had a busy day, and the same was true of Commission row, Easter demand for fresh vegetables and fruits causing activity in the produce market such as has not been seen for several weeks. Prices are very firm. Lettuce is in strong demand, and, the supply being short, extreme figures were received on all offerings. Parsley and rhubarb were higher. Cabbage during the past week took a wonderful leap forward. The fact that supplies have been greatly reduced influenced prices upward. Strawberries are holding steady, but Florida berries have gone down. Some choice Louisiana berries are now offered. Grape fruit is scarce and higher. Spanish pineapples are on the market and selling at $3.50 to $4 a crate. The grocery market during the entire week was without special feature, except in sugars, which indirectly affected the coffee market. The Arbuckles on Saturday advanced the price of refined sugar 10c a hundred pounds at New York, placing it on a basis of 4.60c net per pound. Canned tomatoes are very weak, the usual spring activity in this line not having been realized. Canned corn is holding its own as a leader in this line. Dry goods houses had a very fair week's trade, but the weather is not warm enough to make their business as active as i otherwise would be, as stocks of retail merchants are said to be low, and with the tendency to advance in prices they begin to show a disposition to stock up more freely. Druggists had a busy week. It is said there never has been a season in which the improvement in linseed oil, paint, turpentine and kindred articles has been as heavy as during the last thirty days, and in the regular drug and patent medicine line they are very busy. Provisions continue to be fast movers at strong prices. Iron and steel merchants are having a fine trade. Their traveling men bring in large orders and report the outlook promising. In fact, in all lines of trade only a little more summerlike weather is needed to bring business up to its maximum volume.

Indianapolis Grain Market.

The local grain market has shown a little more activity during the past week, but receipts are falling below expectations of the dealers. Corn and oats usually move briskly in April, but, despite the improved condition of the roads, receipts are comparatively light. Saturday's call was well attended and the bidding spirited at the following prices, as reported by the secretary of the Board of Trade:
